Detailed Contents

PREFACE xxiv
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xxviii
ABOUT THE AUTHORS xxx

PART 1: FOUNDATIONS

CHAPTER 1. INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION: A FIRST LOOK 1

Learning Objectives 1
What Do You Know? 1
What Is Interpersonal Communication? 2
Interpersonal Communication Is about Relationships 3
Interpersonal Communication Takes Two 3
Interpersonal Communication Is a Lifelong Project 3
TRY THIS: Today, Who Is a Stranger? 4
Models of Interpersonal Communication 5
ANALYZE THIS: Are You in a Disguise? 6
People 6
TRY THIS: Rating Relationships 8
Messages 8
Channels 9
Noise 9
Feedback 10
Context 11
Effect 12
Visualizing Communication 12
How Does Interpersonal Communication Enhance Our Lives? 14
It Fulfills Psychological Functions 14
TRY THIS: Making Model Sense 15

TRY THIS: Functions in Action 18
Understanding Interpersonal Contact: Characteristics, Patterns, and Axioms of Communication 18
Five Characteristics of Interpersonal Communication 18
Interpersonal Communication Is a Dynamic Process 19
Interpersonal Communication Is Unrepeatable 19
Interpersonal Communication Is Irreversible 19
Interpersonal Communication Is Learned 19
Interpersonal Communication Is Characterized by Wholeness and Nonsummativity 19

Interpersonal Patterns 20
Five Communication Axioms 20
Axiom 1: You Cannot Not Communicate 21
Axiom 2: Every Interaction Has Content and Relationship Dimensions 21
Axiom 3: Every Interaction Is Defined by How It Is Punctuated 21
Axiom 4: Messages Consist of Verbal Symbols and Nonverbal Cues 21
Axiom 5: Interactions Are Either Symmetrical or Complementary 22

The Impact of Diversity and Culture 22
Diversity and Communication Style 22
Orientation and Cultural Context 23
Individual and Collective Orientation 23
High-Context and Low-Context Communication 24

The Impact of Gender 24
Gender and Communication Style 24

The Impact of Media and Technology 25
TRY THIS: What’s Okay with You? 26

On the Way to Gaining Communication Competence 27
Add to Your Storehouse of Knowledge about Interpersonal Communication 28
Recognize How Your Relationships Affect You 28
CHAPTER 2. THE IMPACT OF SELF-CONCEPT 34

Learning Objectives 34
What Do You Know? 35
The Self-Concept: Your Answer to Who You Are 36
ANALYZE THIS: The Clown 37
TRY THIS: Who Are You? 38
How Are the Self and Self-Concept Related? 37
How Accurate Is the Self-Concept? 38
Self-Esteem: Assessing Self-Worth 39
High versus Low Self-Esteem 39
Self-Esteem and Performance 39
How Others Shape Our Self-Concept 40
We Reflect Others’ Appraisals 40
TRY THIS: Feelings about Age and Physical Ability 41
We Compare Ourselves with Others 41
We Have Perceived, Ideal, and Expected Selves 42
Goffman’s Dramaturgical Approach 42
Imagining a Future Self 42
TRY THIS: The “Authentic” Self 43
Reactions to You: Confirming, Rejecting, and Disconfirming Responses 43
The Self-Fulfilling Prophecy: The Influence of Positive and Negative Pygmalions 44
TRY THIS: Ups and Downs 45

Revising Your Self-Concept: Reexamining Impressions and Conceptions 46
Diversity and Culture in Relationships: How Important Is the “I”? 47
The Self in Individualistic and Collectivist Cultures 47
REFLECT ON THIS: Changes 48
The Self in High- and Low-Context Cultures 49
The Self in High- and Low-Power-Distance Cultures 49
TRY THIS: Are You an “I” or Part of a “We”? 50
Attitudes toward the Self across Cultures 51

Gender and Self-Concept 51
TRY THIS: Young and Old 52
Seeing the Self through the Media and Technology Looking Glass 52
REFLECT ON THIS: Beauty Standards and Dying to Be Thin 53
The Impact of the Media 53
The Impact of Technology 54
ANALYZE THIS: MEdia 55

Gaining Communication Competence: Ways to Strengthen Your Self-Concept 55
Update Pictures 55
Take Lots and Lots of Pictures 56
Explore Others’ Pictures of You 56
Picture Possibilities 56
CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of Aisha’s Term Paper 57

Chapter Summary 58
Check Your Understanding 58
Check Your Skills 59
Key Terms 59

CHAPTER 3. PERCEPTION 60

Learning Objectives 60
What Do You Know? 61
Our Perception Defines Our Reality 62
Do We See the Same Reality? 62
Perception in Action: The Process at Work 63
- Selection 64
- Organization 65
- Evaluation and Interpretation 66
- Memory 66
- Response 67

ANALYZE THIS: The Deceptiveness of Appearance 68

Frameworks of Perception 69
- Schemata 69
- Perceptual Sets and Selectivities 69

REFLECT ON THIS: Attribution Theory 70

TRY THIS: Lessons Learned 71
- Ethnocentrism and Stereotypes 71

Barriers to Accurate Perception 72

REFLECT ON THIS: Stereotypes 73
- Age and Person Perception 73

TRY THIS: The Appearance Factor 74
- Fact-Inference Confusions 74

TRY THIS: Can You Tell the Difference? 75
- Allness 75
- Indiscrimination 75

ANALYZE THIS: Is That All There Is? 76
- Frozen Evaluations and Snap Judgments 76
- Blinding 76
- Judging Others More Harshly than Ourselves 78

Diversity and Culture: Interpreting through Different I’s 78

Gender and Perception 79

The Media, Technology, and Perception 80
- The Media and Perception 81
- Technology and Perception 82

Gaining Communication Competence: Enhancing Your Perceptual Abilities 83
- Recognize the Part You Play 83
- Be a Patient Perceiver 83

TRY THIS: Facebook in Focus 84
- Become a Perception Checker 84
- Widen Your Perception 84
- See through the Eyes of Another 85
- Build Perceptual Bridges, Not Walls 85
- Consider How Technology Is Changing How We Perceive 85

CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of Dax’s Trial 86

Chapter Summary 87
- Check Your Understanding 88
- Check Your Skills 88
- Key Terms 89

---

PART II: MESSAGES

CHAPTER 4. LISTENING 90

Learning Objectives 90

What Do You Know? 91

Listening in Your Life 92

Differences between Hearing and Listening 93

The Differences between Effective and Ineffective Listeners 93

ANALYZE THIS: Understanding “Understanding” 94

Stages of Listening 95

TRY THIS: How’s Your LQ (Listening Quotient)? 96
- Stage 1: Hearing 97
- Stage 2: Understanding 97
- Stage 3: Remembering 97
- Stage 4: Interpreting 98
- Stage 5: Evaluating 98
- Stage 6: Responding 98

Styles and Types of Listening 98
- Styles of Listening 98
  - People-Oriented Listening 98
- REFLECT ON THIS: When Is Listening Not First and Foremost? 99
  - Action-Oriented Listening 99
  - Content-Oriented Listening 99
  - Time-Oriented Listening 100
- Types of Listening 100
  - Appreciative Listening 100
  - Comprehensive Listening 100
  - Critical/Deliberative Listening 100
  - Empathetic Listening 100

Listening Ethics 103
- Do You Tune Out? 103

ANALYZE THIS: Active and Inactive Listening 104
- Do You Fake Attention? 104
Do You Ignore Specific Individuals? 105
Do You Lose Emotional Control? 105
Do You Avoid Challenging Content? 106
Are you Egocentric? 106
Do You Waste Potential Listening Time? 106
Are You Overly Apprehensive? 106
Are You Suffering Symptoms of Listening Burnout? 106

Hurdling Listening Roadblocks 107
Responding with Feedback 107
Defining Feedback 108
Feedback Options 108
Feedback May Be Immediate or Delayed 109
Feedback May Be Person- or Message-Focused 109
Feedback May Be Low- or High-Monitored 109
Feedback May Be Evaluative or Nonevaluative 109

Culture’s Influence on Listening 111
TRY THIS: It’s in the “I”s 112
TRY THIS: Culture, Communication Style, and Feedback 113

Gender’s Influence on Listening 113

Media and Technological Influences on Listening 114
Media Influences 114
Technology’s Influences 115
TRY THIS: The Ethics of Illusionary Listening 116

Gaining Communication Competence: Becoming a Better Listener 116
Catch Yourself Exhibiting a Bad Habit 116
Substitute a Good Habit for a Bad Habit 116
Listen with Your Whole Body 116
Consistently Use Your Ears, Not Just Your Mouth 116
See the Other Side 117
Don’t Listen Assumptively 117
Participate Actively 117
CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of Nonlistening Flora 118

Chapter Summary 119
Check Your Understanding 119
Check Your Skills 120
Key Terms 120

CHAPTER 5. COMMUNICATING WITH WORDS 122

Learning Objectives 122
What Do You Know? 123
Defining Language 124
The Meaning of Words 124
The Triangle of Meaning 126
Removing Semantic Barriers 126
Differentiate Denotative and Connotative Meaning 127
Recognize How Time and Place May Change Meaning 127
TRY THIS: Measuring Meaning 128
Consider the Effect of Your Words 129
Euphemisms and Linguistic Ambiguity 129
Recognize Emotive Language 129
TRY THIS: Euphemisms and Strategic Ambiguity 130
Acknowledge the Power of Polarizing Language 130
Balance Politically Correct Language 131
Beware of Bypassing 132
REFLECT ON THIS: Which Do You Prefer? 133
Don’t Be Misled by Labels 133
TRY THIS: Is It Politically Correct or Incorrect? 134
Language and Relationships: Communication Style, Words, and Feelings 134
ANALYZE THIS: Hurtful Words 135
Culturespeak 136
TRY THIS: The Language-Culture Link 139

Genderspeak 139
Language Can Diminish and Stereotype Women and Men 139
Language Practices Reflect Goals and Feelings about Power 140

Age and Language 141
REFLECT ON THIS: The Muted Group 142
CHAPTER 6. NONVERBAL COMMUNICATION 150

Learning Objectives 150
What Do You Know? 151
Defining Nonverbal Communication 152
The Functions and Characteristics of Nonverbal Communication 152
The Functions of Nonverbal Cues 153
Characteristics of Nonverbal Communication 154
All Nonverbal Behavior Has Message Value 154
Nonverbal Communication Is Ambiguous 155
Nonverbal Communication Is Predominantly Relational 155
Nonverbal Behavior May Reveal Deception 155
TRY THIS: It’s Not Just What You Say . . . 158

Reading Nonverbal Messages 158
Kinesics: The Messages of Movement 159
Face and Eye Talk 159
Putting on a Face: The Ethics of Face-Work 161
ANALYZE THIS: Facecrime 162
Gestures and Posture: The Body in Motion and at Rest 163
TRY THIS: The Ethics of Impression Creation 164
Decoding the Body’s Messages 164
Paralinguistics: The Messages of the Voice 165
Pitch 166
Volume 166
Rate 166
Articulation and Pronunciation 166
REFLECT ON THIS: Ummmmmmm . . 167
Hesitations and Silence 167
Proxemics: Space and Distance Talks 167
Spatial Relationships: Near or Far 168
Places and Their Spaces: Decoding the Environment 169
Territoriality: Yours and Mine 170
Haptics: Touch 170
Artifactual Communication and Appearance 172
Olfactics: Smell 173
Color: Associations and Connections 173
Chronemics: The Communicative Value of Time 174

Culture and Nonverbal Behavior 175
REFLECT ON THIS: Does Beauty Pay? 176
Gender and Nonverbal Behavior 177
TRY THIS: The Race Factor 178
Nonverbal Cues and Flirting: Expressing Interest or Disinterest 179
TRY THIS: Top Billing 179
Media, Technology, and Nonverbal Messages 180
TRY THIS: Can You Read the Cues? 182

Gaining Communication Competence in Nonverbal Communication 182
Pay Attention to Nonverbal Messages 182
When Uncertain about a Nonverbal Cue’s Meaning, Ask! 183
Realize Inconsistent Messages Have Communicative Value 183
Match the Degree of Closeness you Seek with the Nonverbal Behavior You Display 183
Monitor Your Nonverbal Behavior 184
CHAPTER 7. CONVERSATIONS 188

Learning Objectives 188
What Do You Know? 189
The Importance of Conversational Contact 190
TRY THIS: Do You Like to Talk? 191
What Is Conversation? 191
TRY THIS: The Elevator 192
Conversation: Games and Players 192
Conversational Structure 192
TRY THIS: Conversational Analysis 193
The Greeting 194
Topic Priming 194
The Heart of the Conversation 195
Preliminary Processing 195
The Closing 196
Conversational Management 196
Turn Taking: Maintaining and Yielding the Floor 197
The Cooperation Principle 197
TRY THIS: Whose Turn Is It, Anyway? 198
The Dialogue Principle 198
ANALYZE THIS: Relationship Turns 199
Repairing Conversational Damage 200
Cultural Differences and Conversation 200
Gender Differences and Conversation 201
REFLECT ON THIS: Interruptitis 202
Media and Technology Talk 202
ANALYZE THIS: Don’t Finish My Thoughts 203
TRY THIS: Squawk Talk 204

CHAPTER 8. EMOTIONS 210

Learning Objectives 210
What Do You Know? 211
What Are Emotions? 212
Why Emotional Intelligence Is Important 213
The Look and Feel of Emotions 213
Surprise! 214
Anger 214
Happiness 215
Sadness 215
REFLECT ON THIS: Can Exercise Make You Happy and Less Stressed? 216
Fear 216
Disgust 216
Emotions: Primary, Mixed, and Contagious 216
Emotions Affect Evaluations 217
TRY THIS: Emotional Checkup 218

CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of the Company Party 207
Chapter Summary 208
Check Your Understanding 208
Check Your Skills 209
Key Terms 209

PART III: DYNAMICS
Relationships and Emotions 219

Are Your Emotions Facilitative or Debilitative? 219
What Do You Tell Yourself? 219
TRY THIS: Do You Have Resilience? 220
What Do You Tell Another Person? 220
ANALYZE THIS: Should You Tell? 221

What Is Your Emotional Attachment Style? 221

Culture and the Expression of Emotion 222
TRY THIS: Are You a Face-Saver? 223

Gender and the Expression of Emotion 223

Media and Technology: Channeling Feelings 224
Media Models 224
TRY THIS: Sharing Feelings 225
Technological Channels 226
TRY THIS: Modeling 227

Gaining Communication Competence: Communicating Emotion 227
Recognize That Thoughts Cause Feelings 228
Choose the Right Words 228
Show That You Accept Responsibility for Your Feelings 229
Share Feelings Fully 229
Decide When, Where, and to Whom to Reveal Feelings 229
Describe the Response You Seek 229
CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of Late Jean 230

Chapter Summary 231
Check Your Understanding 231
Check Your Skills 232
Key Terms 232

CHAPTER 9. TRUST AND DECEPTION 234

Learning Objectives 234
What Do You Know? 235
What Is Trust? 236
The Bases of Trust 237

The Components of Trust 237
Trust Behavior 237
Trustworthy Behavior 237
TRY THIS: Can I Depend on You? Can You Depend on Me? 238
Failed Trust 238

Forgiveness: Rebuilding a Relationship after Trust Is Betrayed 239
ANALYZE THIS: Misplaced Trust 240

Cost-Benefit Theory: The Price We Are Willing to Pay for a Relationship 241

Defining the Relational Situation 241
TRY THIS: Relationship Balance Sheet 242
Cooperative and Competitive Relationships 242
TRY THIS: Cooperative or Competitive? 243
Supportive and Defensive Relationships 243
Evaluation versus Description 244
Control versus Problem Orientation 245
Strategy versus Spontaneity 245
ANALYZE THIS: On the Defensive 246
Neutrality versus Empathy 247
Superiority versus Equality 247
Certainty versus Provisionalism 248

Deception and Relationship Ethics 248
TRY THIS: Cornered 249

REFLECT ON THIS: Building Company Trust 251
White Lies: Motivation Matters 251
Lying to Ourselves: Defensive Strategies 252
Displacement 252
Repression 252
Rationalization 252
Relational Counterfeiters 252
The Effects of Lying 253
REFLECT ON THIS: Richard S. Lazarus and the Case for White Lies 254
The Effects of Gossip 254

Culture and Trust 255
TRY THIS: How Prepared Are You to Trust? 256

Gender and Trust 256

Media, Technology, and Lessons on Trust 257
The Media and Trust 257
Technology and Trust 258

Gaining Communication Competence: Nurturing a Trusting Relationship 260
Be Willing to Disclose Yourself to Another Person 260
Let the Other Person Know You Accept and Support Him or Her 260
CHAPTER 10. POWER AND INFLUENCE 264

Learning Objectives 264
What Do You Know? 265
The Control Factor: Exploring the Balance of Power in Relationships 266
Feeling Powerful versus Powerless 266
Are You Socially Anxious? 266
Are You on a Power Trip? 267
Where Does Power Come From? 267
Power Categories 267
TRY THIS: What’s Your Power Orientation? 268
Reward Power 269
Coercive Power 269
Expert Power 269
Legitimate Power 269
Referent Power 269
Persuasive Power 270
Exercising Persuasion 270
The Role of Attitudes 270
What Is an Attitude? 270
TRY THIS: Powerful People and Power Plays 271
Where Do Our Attitudes Come From? 271
The Role of Beliefs 272
What Are Beliefs? 272
TRY THIS: Assessing Attitudes and Surveying Beliefs 273
Defining and Characterizing Values 275
Gaining Compliance in Interpersonal Relationships 275
Strategies for Compliance Gaining 275
ANALYZE THIS: The Diary of a Young Girl 276
TRY THIS: Graphing Your Values 277
Strategies for Balancing Attitudes 279
Routes to Interpersonal Influence 281
TRY THIS: Tensions and Tactics 282
Diversity, Values, and Relational Power 283
Gender and the Balance of Power 284
TRY THIS: Who Has the Power? 285
REFLECT ON THIS: Power Issues by Gender 286
Media, Technology, and Power Shifts 286
Media Power 286
Technological Power 287
Gaining Communication Competence: Controlling Relationships 288
Use Power Wisely 288
Understand How Beliefs, Values, and Attitudes Affect Interactions 288
Capitalize on the Need for Balance 288
CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of the Power Moment 289
Chapter Summary 290
Check Your Understanding 290
Check Your Skills 291
Key Terms 291

CHAPTER 11. CONFLICT 292

Learning Objectives 292
What Do You Know? 293
The Meaning of Conflict 294
Conflict Defined 294
Conflict Is Based on Interaction 294
Feelings about Conflict 294
Functional Conflict 295
Dysfunctional Conflict 295
TRY THIS: Thinking through Conflict 296
Conflict's Sources 298
Interactions among Individuals 298
Conflict-Generating Behaviors 299
Preemptive Striking 299
Forcing 299
Blaming 299
Classifying Conflicts 299
The Nature of the Goal 299
The Intensity Level of the Conflict 299
TRY THIS: How Verbally Aggressive Are You? 300
The Character of the Conflict 301
Conflict Management Styles 302
Avoiding 302
Competitive 303
Compromising 303
Accommodative 303
Collaborative 304
TRY THIS: Where Are You on the Grid? 304
Communication Behavior in the Face of Conflict 305
Destructive Communication Behaviors 305
Constructive Communication Behaviors 306
DESC Scripts 307
Describe 307
Express 307
Specify 307
Consequences 307
Your Expressive Style: Nonassertive, Aggressive, or Assertive 308
TRY THIS: A Self-Assessment 309
Nonassertiveness 311
Why We Do Not Assert Ourselves 311
Nonassertive Language 311
Aggressiveness 311
Why We Act Aggressively 312
Aggressive Language 312
Assertiveness 313
Learning Assertive Behavior 313
Assertive Language 313
Culture and Conflict Resolution 315
ANALYZE THIS: Edward de Bono 316
Gender and Conflict Resolution 316
Media, Technology, and Conflict Resolution: Models or Madness 317
Media Portrayals: Model the Way 317
REFLECT ON THIS: Lessons Learned 318
Technology: Real and Unreal 318
TRY THIS: It's War! 320
Gaining Communication Competence: Guidelines for Resolving Conflict 320
Recognize That Conflict Can Be Resolved Rationally 320
Agree about How to Define the Conflict 321
Exchange Perceptions: Describe, Express, Specify, and Note Behavioral Consequences 321
Assess Alternative Solutions and Choose the One That Seems Best 321
Implement and Evaluate the Selected Solution 321
CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of the Jousting Roommates 322
Chapter Summary 323
Check Your Understanding 324
Check Your Skills 324
Key Terms 325

PART IV: RELATIONSHIPS IN CONTEXT

CHAPTER 12. RELATIONSHIP DYNAMICS 326

Learning Objectives 326
What Do You Know? 327
Why Do We Need Relationships? 328
Relationships Preserve Happiness and Health 328
Relationships Prevent Isolation 329
Relationships Meet Interpersonal Needs 329
ANALYZE THIS: By Yourself 332
Relationships Serve as Behavioral Anchors 332
Relationships Function as Communication Conduits 332
TRY THIS: How Do You Feel about Being In /Out, Up/Down, or Close/Far? 333
When Good, Relationships Help Maintain Our Sense of Worth 333
Relationship Characteristics 334
Duration 334
Contact Frequency 334
Sharing 334
Support 334
Interaction Variability 334
Goals 335
Forming Friendships 335
The Nature of Intimacy 335
The Nature of Acquaintanceship 335
TRY THIS: Measuring Intimacy 336
The Nature of Friendship 336
Role-Limited Interaction 337
Friendly Relations 338
Moving toward Friendship 338
Nascent Friendship 338
Stabilized Friendship 338
Waning Friendship 338

Romance: Coming Together and Breaking Apart 339
Love’s Dimensions 339
The Triangle of Love 340
Love’s Stages 340
Stage 1: Initiating 341
Stage 2: Experimenting 341
Stage 3: Intensifying 341
Stage 4: Integrating 342
Stage 5: Bonding 342
Stage 6: Differentiating 342
Stage 7: Circumscribing 342
ANALYZE THIS: Status Updates 343
Stage 8: Stagnating 343
Stage 9: Avoiding 343
Stage 10: Terminating 344
TRY THIS: Looking at Your Relationships 345

Relationship Attractors 345
Physical Attractiveness 346
Social Attractiveness 346
REFLECT ON THIS: The Romantic Attraction Factor 347
Task Attractiveness 348
Proximity 348
Reinforcement 348
Similarity 349
Complementarity 349
TRY THIS: Attractors 350

Culture and Connection 350
Does the Culture Place More Stress on Individuals or on Social Relationships? 351
Does the Culture Promote the Development of Short- or Long-Term Relationships? 352
Does the Culture Value Results or the Interactional Process? 352

Gender and Relationship Formation 352
Media, Technology, and Social Worlds 353
Media Portrayals of Friendship and Romance 353
TRY THIS: Ties That Bind 354
Technology: Meeting in Cyberspace 354

Gaining Communication Competence: Mastering Relationship Complexities 356
Understand That Relationships Don’t Just Happen 356
Recognize Why We Need Others 357
Understand the Nature of Friendship and Romantic Relationships 357
Meet the Challenges Posed by Media and Technology 357
CONNECT THE CASE: The Case of the Job Promotion 358

Chapter Summary 359
Check Your Understanding 360
Check Your Skills 360
Key Terms 361

CHAPTER 13. INTIMACY AND DISTANCE IN RELATIONSHIPS 362

Learning Objectives 362
What Do You Know? 363
Self-Disclosure and Intimacy 364
Social Penetration Theory 365
TRY THIS: Social Penetration—in Casual and Intimate Relationships 367
The Johari Window and Self-Disclosure 367
REFLECT ON THIS: Sharing in Close Relationships 369
Using Relational Dialectics to Understand Relationships 371
TRY THIS: Window Gazing 372
Integration-Separation 372
Stability-Change 372
Expression-Privacy 373
Working through Dialectical Tensions 373
TRY THIS: Try to See It My Way 374
Relationship Maintenance 374
TRY THIS: What’s Fair? 376
Relationship Repair: Fix It or End It 376
Identify the Problem 376
Identify Strategies to Repair the Problem 377
Decide to Dissolve or Save the Relationship 377
CHAPTER 14. RELATIONSHIPS IN OUR LIVES: FAMILY, WORK, AND HEALTH-RELATED CONTEXTS 390

Learning Objectives 390
What Do You Know? 391
The Nature of Familial Communication 392
The Family as Communication System 393

Family Members Are Interdependent 393
The Family Is Greater than the Sum of Its Parts 394
Family Members Engage in Mutual Influence 394

TRY THIS: Virginia Satir on “Peoplemaking” 395

Family Communication: Roles and Rules 395

ANALYZE THIS: Transitions 396

TRY THIS: The Rules We Live By 398

Communication Patterns in Families 398
Problematic Communication Patterns 398
Productive Communication Patterns 399
Your Family Network 399

Culture and the Family 400
Varying Family Composition 401
Varying Communication Styles 401
Varying Family Roles 401

TRY THIS: Role Call 402
Gender and the Family 402

Interpersonal Communication at Work 404

TRY THIS: The TV Family 405

Relationships Are the Organization 405
The Dyad and the Organization 405
A Question of Dependence and Independence 406
A Question of Trust 406
A Question of Perception 406

Networks, Interaction, and Relationship Satisfaction 407

Working in Teams 407
Create Healthy Work Climates 407
Practice Effective Decision Making 408

REFLECT ON THIS: The Effects of Groupthink 410

Culture and the Workplace 410
Are Workers Dominant or Submissive? 410
Are Workers Individualistic or Collectivistic? 411
How Do Workers Perceive the Need for Space? 411
How Do Workers Perceive Time? 411
How Diverse Are the Interpersonal Needs and Skills of Workers? 412
Are Members of Different Generations Prepared to Work Together? 413

Gender and the Workplace 413

TRY THIS: Culture Can Shock 414

Stereotypes of Women in Organizations 414
Stereotypes of Men in Organizations 415
Gender and Work-Life Balance 415
Leadership and Management Style 415
Workplace Pathologies: Bullying and Sexual Harassment 416